TIGER BILL DONOVAN BLANKS NATIONALS

Win on Account of Weak Backstopping.

The game between the Nationals at Tigers was something like a modifie cake walk for the latter, as they won o handily by the score of 5 to 0. Working a catcher with a badly bruised finger wa too much of a handicap for the locals Boston..... and in addition, Donovan being in fine Cleveland. and in addition, Donovan being in fine fettle, robbed the contest of all semblance of sport. Blankenship had to grasp the ball with only his forefinger and thumb and try to head off the speedy Tiger runers. It takes the best of tossing to stop the Tigers and as a result the ball went wild and instead of one base base on balls—off clotte. 2: off Berger, 3: off Rhoades, 2.
